

Discount schemes

These are offered by social landlords (council and housing association tenants) to give their tenants the chance to buy their rented home at a discount, which is calculated according to where you live.

The three main discount schemes are 'Right to Buy' for council tenants, 'Right to Acquire' for housing associations tenants and the Social HomeBuy scheme.